Annual Report 2017

THE POWER OF ONE

In 2017, together we helped

10,896

children and families.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Friend,

I believe that people — not programs — change lives. Whether it's a foster parent who makes a child feel loved, a staff member who truly listens, or a volunteer who never misses a commitment, I've seen firsthand that one person can change the course of a child's life.

Whether you made a donation, gave of your time, attended an event, or supported our work in some other way, I want to thank you for being part of the powerful network that is changing kids' lives every day.

Your commitment is an example of the Power of One.

I hope you enjoy reading about the work we have accomplished together in the pages of this annual report. If you have questions or comments, please reach out to me at jkohomban@childrensvillage.org. I would love to hear from you.

Jeremy

Jeremy C. Kohomban, PhD
President and CEO

OUR MISSION

The Children's Village works in partnership with families to help society's most vulnerable children so that they become educationally proficient, economically productive, and socially responsible members of their communities.

OUR VISION

WE CELEBRATE DIVERSITY AND ITS POWER TO ENRICH US ALL.

WE BELIEVE THAT THE PRESENCE OF AT LEAST ONE
CARING, COMMITTED ADULT
IS THE NON-NEGOTIABLE
REQUIREMENT FOR A CHILD'S SUCCESS.

WE BELIEVE THAT A HIGH-QUALITY EDUCATION EMPOWERS
CHILDREN TO CREATE
A BRIGHTER FUTURE FOR THEMSELVES.

YEAR IN REVIEW

Merged with Inwood House. We're stronger, leaner, and better able to help more vulnerable children and families.

Opened 10-story building in Harlem. 48 families moved into the beautiful and affordable apartments, and 12 of our young people got their very first apartments.

Consolidated office space. The 16,000 square feet of office space in the Harlem building allowed us to give up rented space and open a third clinic for our foster children.

Reduced immigration program. As fewer unaccompanied minors are coming into the U.S., the federal government is consolidating providers. However, CV remains a lead agency for caring for these children and families.

Strengthened our infrastructure. With more than $1.2 million received in state and private funding, we began renovations to cottages and the Keith Haring Medical Clinic on the Dobbs Ferry campus.

Added new friends. Inwood House supporters, including the Corporate Advisory Board, have joined the CV family with enthusiasm. Together we continued the tradition of the annual Inwood House luncheon and doubled the size of the annual CV gala.

CARLTON SMITH

A Credible Messenger for CV Kids

Carlton, a mentor in the WAY Program, doesn't talk much about the fact that he was once a CV resident. But the kids know.

When Isaiah, a young man who left CV and was living on the streets, boasted that he sleeps on the "D" train because it's the longest ride, Carlton quietly corrected him. "Actually, the 'A' train is longer. That's the one I used to sleep on." Shocked, Isaiah admitted that maybe he could use Carlton's help.

Carlton is one of a growing number of credible messengers on our staff who can speak to kids and families in a special way because they have walked in their shoes. He demonstrates every day the power one person can have for change.

WAY PROGRAM

SUPPORT FOR TEENS RETURNING TO THE COMMUNITY

LOU CODELLA

Mentor for 40 Years

"I never had a father figure, but Lou became that for me."

- Hasani

In 40 years of volunteering with Children's Village, Lou has been a father figure to literally hundreds of young men. He attends chapel with the kids every Sunday. He drives them to Young Life sleepaway camp every summer. He serves Thanksgiving dinner for the homeless with CV kids every year and spends every Christmas with them.

"Growing up in foster care, there are not many adults who invested themselves in me. Lou did." - Anthony

Lou demonstrates the power that one person can have on a child every day, but he most often talks about what he gets in return.

"I always get back more than I give." - Lou

MARIELA S.

Once Homeless, Now Refocused on the Future

Mariela knows which homeless shelters take families, which ones take teens, which ones are relatively safe.

After she was turned out of her aunt's apartment, she spent six months hopping from shelter to shelter until she discovered Inwood House's supported housing program.

Without a permanent address, Mariela was rarely able to attend high school and a diploma was out of reach. That changed when she met her case worker, Sharoya Assent.

"Ms. Sharoya motivated me to stay focused on finishing high school," said Mariela. "She helped me define goals for my life, and what I need to do to reach them."

Ms. Sharoya is a powerful force in Mariela's life, helping her strive for a career that will lead to independence.

SUPPORTED HOUSING FOR HOMELESS TEENS

Housing is the single biggest barrier to young people becoming independent. CV provides supported housing and independent apartments for homeless teens or young people aging out of foster care with no family support, like Robert (pictured below).

PAPA HUE AND PAPA VAN

10 Foster/Adoptive Children—and Counting

“You’re family” is the frequent refrain from Papa Hue (O’Donna Hue Osbourne) and Papa Van (Van Lee) to the succession of children and teens who have made their big, welcoming house their home.

In the last ten years, the two have fostered teens Quentin, Ernest, Trevon, Diamond, Shane, Quesar, and currently Jason. “I feel like we’re racing against the clock with teens,” said Mr. Osbourne. “They don’t have much time to overcome the damage done to them.”

Today, they have two adoptive sons, Isaiah (13) and Talik (12), and are in the process of adopting their first little girl, Akasha, who they report is “a glorious handful.”
